

HB 1773 -- Investigation of Companies Issuing Appropriation Bonds

Sponsor: Barnes

This bill specifies that the underwriter and the rating agency for any bond issued by a municipal or local governing body has the professional duty to investigate the financial status and material business claims of any company or project for which the bond is issued and will benefit.